Who we are

SHIBA is part of the Washington State Office of the Insurance Commissioner's consumer protection services. We provide free, unbiased and confidential help with Medicare and health care choices.

One of 54 state health insurance programs (SHIP) in the U.S., SHIBA was the very first program in the nation. We've been in operation since 1979. We're the only SHIP that serves all ages.

Our team's an education and referral system

We're made up of:

- Community volunteer advisors
- Local sponsoring agencies
- Office of the Insurance Commissioner staff
- Other government agencies and community partners

How our volunteer advisors help consumers

- Assess health care coverage needs
- Determine general eligibility for health care coverage programs
- Evaluate and compare health plans and programs
- Provide enrollment help with Medicare
- Speak with 1-800 Medicare on clients' behalf
- Make referrals to other agencies and programs
- Collect and report possible fraud complaints

Who we serve

- All ages and backgrounds
- People with disabilities and specific diseases
- Seniors and pre-retirees
- Ethnic and multilingual populations
- Uninsured people
- Rural populations
- People with low income
